SPECIAL SKILLS & INTERESTS

Chance is an animated, expressive young performer known for his impeccable manners, work ethic, adaptability, teachability, and excellent memorization. He's an interesting conversationalist at ease with the elderly, animals, children, amputees, disabled, and mentally ill. Unwilling to limit his opportunities, Chance has mastered the art of balancing his life as an academic scholar with his love of performing arts and dedication to training that has, among other things, distinguished him as the top Violinist in his class and earned him a 2nd-degree black belt in taekwondo. For nearly a decade, Chance used YouTube to teach himself gymnastics, parkour, and dance, which paved the way for him to excel at improv and choreography. Though he's been performing since age 4, Chance has always dreamt of acting for tv, film, and commercials and is actively seeking such opportunities.
